

Watercolorist Eudes Correia In front of Notre Dame de Paris

Winsor & Newton Watercolorist Eudes Correia, based in Portugal, visited the Charbonnel Artist Engagement Space in Paris a few weeks before Notre Dame's tragedy.

Eudes is brand ambassador and a Winsor & Newton watercolor superuser. He paints exclusively with our range for the intensity of its colours. His visit was the opportunity for him to discover the cadmium-free watercolour range, which he enjoyed a lot, especially since he's environmentally conscious.

Thanks to an online competition, a few of his fans travelled from all over France to meet him for a workshop; an artistic moment shared by all.

Eudes has over 78.7K followers on Instagram.

Click here to watch the video of his visit here.