Coronavirus update

I really appreciate that currently many of you pay a lot of attention to the situation of Wuhan. As a Wuhanese, I'd like to share a few points about what's happening in my life.

Firstly, since Wuhan limit inflow and outflow of people, the streets are virtually empty. Almost all stores are closed except for pharmacies and supermarket. Groceries and other goods in supermarket are supplied sufficiently with stable price. However, medical supplies, such as alcohol cleaners and masks, are in serious shortage.

Regarding the situation of hospitals, medical staffs of fever clinics increased. As I got a cold when I went back to Wuhan, I had the chance to visit the hospital twice. Comparing to my experience, the efficiency of hospital has been improved even the number of patients is increasing. Although the situation is serious right now, there are still many touching things happening. Onetime I saw some people delivered food to medical staffs for free. After receiving food, the medical staffs first share the food with patients, although they also hadn't eaten yet. Patients also helped with each other, guiding new patient and answering their questions. Nurses at reception are very warmhearted. They treated elders just like treating their own grandpa and grandma.

Although the epidemic is an unfortunate experience, I really feel people are more connected and are more willing to share the love. There must be much more good things happening that I haven't seen by myself. I have great faith that the epidemic will be defeated. Bless you! Please take good care and follow precautions. Wish you healthy and peaceful!

最近，很多人都非常关心武汉的情况，作为一个武汉人，我就给大家分享一下现在我在武汉的生活。

首先，自从武汉封城禁车以来，街上已经没有什么行人了。除了药店和超市，其他的商店都关门了。各个小区出入都需要量体温。超市内的物资都很充分，价格也没有上涨。但是各大药店，酒精和口罩类似的资源非常紧缺。

医院的情况，发热门诊的医护增加了，回武汉期间由于感冒去了两次医院，对比之下明显感觉，疫情爆发后，虽然看病的人增加了，但效率却提高了。虽然现在情况紧急，但依旧有很多温暖人心的事情。以下是我的亲眼所见。有爱心人士买了一些食物送到医院，医护人员接收后，自己也没有吃饭，但却先问病人并且把食物分给了病人。对于新来的病人，不知道流程，病人之间都互相帮助，告诉他们该去哪里做什么。负责接待的护士非常的热心，遇到年纪大的爷爷奶奶，对待他们就像对待自己的爷爷奶奶一样。虽然我们很不幸经历了这次的疫情，但是在这期间，我感觉到人和人之间的联系却更紧密了。还有更多我没有看到的温暖的事情每天都在发生，我相信我们一定可以扛过去。加油！大家也要注意防护，好好的保护自己，祝福大家健康平安！
