

What's happening at Elephant West...even though we're temporarily closed?

Winsor & Newton Online Art Classes

Always wanted to sign up for the Winsor & Newton art classes but didn't have the time or don't live in London?

Here's your chance to join in. We've moved our classes online and we're offering all Colart staff, family and friends a special 50% discount. Head here for more details and apply discount code WEST50

360 Virtual Gallery Visit

Missing Elephant West? Or never had chance to visit it before ....? Thanks to Toby Russell and our art technician Laurie Shaw, we've managed to embed a 360 virtual gallery from the current exhibition Insanity Fair by Zoobs Ansari which opened just days before the UK lockdown.

Visit Elephant West page here, click on VISIT THE VIRTUALGALLERY button and enjoy the show!

Social Anxiety No. 17

Back to Black

Forever Young Lips

A date with Elephant West and Photojournalism Hub

We're delighted to collaborate once again with Photojournalism Hub, who will be presenting a live stream of the third edition of the Photojournalism Nights, normally held live at Elephant West.

The Photojournalism Nights is an event that promotes committed and courageous photojournalism and engages the public to social justice and human rights.

Join the live stream via Zoom at 18:30pm (GMT), 29th April, with stimulating line-up of photographers: Jillian Edelstein, Roland Ramanan, Jadwiga Bronte, Valentina Schivardi.

Photographers will present for approximately 15 minutes each with a Q&A opportunity at the end of each session. Click here to RSVP

