Watch the video

On Friday 14th September, we held the fortnightly Town Hall Meeting, hosted by CEO Dennis van Schie. Guests included VP & General Manager (North America) Steve Chamberlain, Regional Marketing Director (North America) Sarah Clark and DC Manager (North America) Carlos Trejo.

Dennis started the session, talking about wellbeing and the importance not only of your fiscal wellbeing but also of your mental and social wellbeing and the importance of this within our environments.

Steve then presented and provided an overview of the North America business. Sarah gave us insights into the performance of Liquitex across both their local North America region plus how planned campaigns had positively impacted globally. With the DC4 warehouse in the background we got to hear, first-hand, how Carlos and his teams have worked throughout the pandemic and how they plan to ensure future efficiencies,
