

Town Hall Meeting – Watch the video.

On Friday 23rd April, we held the fortnightly Town Hall meeting hosted by CEO Dennis van Schie.

Dennis started the session by sharing his current reading, Station Eleven, which he described as a page-turner. He also spoke about his most recent inspiration, the new Elephant issue, a more diverse, broader in its cultural aspect (poetry photography...), and more accessible.

Company-wise, the month of March has been a good one, with a strong performance on sale, profit, and cash. Dennis also brought up the importance of Sustainability in the business.

This time wellbeing was the main topic of the Town Hall Meeting. Carole took us through the wellbeing journey and its importance within the business. You can watch the wellbeing video here.
