

Lindengruppen's Sustainability Report 2020

Lindengruppen published their Sustainability Report 2020 last month. This year's report provides an update on the Group's sustainability progress.

The new report is aligned with the World Economic Forum White Paper 'Measuring Stakeholder Capitalism – Towards Common Metrics and Consistent Reporting of Sustainable Value Creation and its four focus areas Governance, Planet, People and Prosperity.

Sustainability highlights 2020

- Lindengruppen played a key role in developing a new Children's Rights and Business Workbook.
- Beckers unveiled a new vision to become the most sustainable industrial coatings company.
- Colart put sustainability at the heart of their New Product Development Process.
- Alex Begg stepped up work to remove chemicals from their supply chain.
- Höganäs launched their Climate Neutrality Roadmap 2045.
